MR. FRANK A. BURRUSS

Dedication

Cape Charles High School is truly fortunate to have such a leader as Mr. Frank A. Burruss. His untiring efforts and endless patience as principal, coach, teacher, and friend have won for him the respect and love of faculty and students alike. The Seniors and Juniors of Cape Charles High School are proud to dedicate Volume XXIV of the "Arrow" to him.

JANET, GWEN, MRS. AMES, MICHAEL, LINDA.

Foreword

We, the annual staff, present to you, the student body, the 1961 edition of the Arrow.

Seniors, to you the 1961 Arrow represents twelve years of hard study and many accomplishments. May it always bring to mind our close friendships, our happy hours, and our teachers.

To the student body, we hope that you will enrich your lives by hard study, by an endless struggle for your goals, and by faithful friendships.

Janet & Mike

THOUGHTS TO THE STUDENTS:

Congratulations to Mrs. Ames and the annual staff. There is a great deal more work involved in getting out a yearbook than most of us realize. All of us appreciate your efforts.

We have had a good year. In athletics we have met with outstanding success. We had a good football season. Our basketball team has been unusually good and we are looking forward to success in baseball also. More important than athletics, we have had a good year scholastically. The senior class gave us good leadership in classroom work. They consistently had half the class on the honor roll.

Congratulations, Seniors. May success crown your every effort, and may the future bring you genuine happiness.

Where Will a Senior Go?

His school days over,
Diploma in hand-
Out walks a senior,
His life unplanned.

Twelve years of training
For his graduation-
What can he show
For his education?

He has a roll of paper,
A searching look,
A heart full of memories,
A '61 yearbook.

But what has he
That all seniors don't?
Can he succeed
Where others won't?

This is the question
Which fills him with dread-
"What shall I be?"
There's a long road ahead.

But wherever he goes-
North, south, east, or west-
The worst he can do
Is not do his best.

Recipe for a Graduating Class

(Cape Charles High School Style)

Ingredients:	32 first graders
Yield:	22 graduates

Mix together one roomful of pint-sized first graders. Sift out a few who moved away, or didn't quite make the grade. Melt together twenty-one hundred and sixty full school days into twelve short years.

Grate in a few hard lessons, sprinkled with uncountable experiences. Add a dash of maturity, season with a pinch of humor, and stir with the guiding hand of the faculty. Beat in a measure of responsibility, and spice with outstanding athletic ability. For color blend in several trophies, a 1961 "ARROW," and a long honor roll. Frost with class rings in the junior year.

Let rise until the glorious day of graduation. Decorate with grey and white caps and gowns, and serve with diplomas.

Last Will and Testament

We, the 1961 Senior Class of Cape Charles High School, Cape Charles, Virginia, being true Indians through and through, and considering ourselves well-schooled in reading, writing, and 'rithmetic, wish to follow in the footsteps of our predecessors by making this, our last will and testament, to be executed in the following order:

ARTICLE I. To the school we leave memories of one of its largest and best graduating classes.

ARTICLE II. To the faculty we leave the assurance that there will never be another class like ours.

ARTICLE III. To the classes:

To the juniors we leave that glorious feeling that comes only from being "THE SENIORS."

To the sophomores we leave two years in which to have a real blast.

To the freshmen we leave piles of pencil nubs, worn-down erasers and dirty blackboards to cheer them on.

To the eighth-graders we leave the most of all - four wonderful high school years.

ARTICLE IV. To the individuals:

Ethel Carpenter leaves her ability to gripe over nothing to Linda Wilkins.

J. R. Outten leaves his reserved seat at Savage's Drug Store to whoever gets there first.

Gwen Humphrey leaves her girdle to Sue Stevenson so she can eat all she wants.

Bobby Carpenter leaves his "best-kept" hair to Mr. Burruss, who needs any kind he can get.

Etta Kaye Luettinger leaves her slew-footed leotards to Donna Edgerton.

Tommy Scott leaves his "You-Know-What" to Mike McCabe.

Janet Lewis leaves $4.70 to pay for her cap and gown to Miss Spady.

Jackie Sorrells leaves his fan club to Betty Lee Bradford, who is now president.

Betty Parsons leaves her ability to make people lose their tempers to Sandra Tyndall.

Jackie Bailey leaves Cape Charles behind in a cloud of dust.

Joyce Woods leaves her collection of "Mad" magazines to Sharon Bosse.

Stanley Bennett leaves his ability to complicate everything to Mary Bradford.

Shirley Haskins leaves the urge to graduate to Suzanne Holloman.

Ricky Parks leaves a trail of candy wrappers and empty drink bottles to the janitor.

Nancy Abbott leaves her ability to get to school one second before the bell rings to Joy Savage.

Bobby Steffins leaves his ability to scare little girls and dogs to Kent Mapp.

Nancy Suderno leaves 25 pounds that she doesn't want to Keith Bull.

Parker Forrest leaves his high-powered speed boat to anyone who enjoys bailing.

Marian Robbins leaves her old beaten-up golf balls to John McMillan.

Clem Pruitt leaves the last word to Sue Stevenson.

Violet Ward leaves those loud words she never used to Nancy Sue Lingo.

Truett Casteen leaves his giggle box to Robbie Dix.

The Perfect Senior Boy Should Have:

Ricky's height
Parker's build
J. R. 's brains
Bailey's gas money
Clem's athletic ability
Stanley's broad experiences
Banjo's sense of humor
Bobby's thriftiness
Nut's dark complexion
Truett's laugh
Tommy's girls

The Perfect Senior Girl Should Have:

Violet's hair
Gwen's clothes
Suderno's pocketbook
Ethel's southern drawl
Betty's lavender leotards
Etta Kaye's colorful personality
Shirley's diamond ring
Marian's food supply
Nancy's common sense
Janet's report card
Joyce's appetite

Jimmy claims to hate every girl; we think he'll soon give marriage a whirl.

David a scientist plans to be; he'll make a good one we all agree.

Elaine says she's going to college to eye the boys; but we predict she'll end up picking up toys.

Sandra plans to type and keep books; she's out to find a boss with money and looks.

Sharon plans a career in pharmacy; but unless we miss our guess, she'll coach girls' basketball at C.C.H.S.

To: The District A Group III
Eastern Shore Basketball
Champions of 1961

Congratulations to our championship basketball team! Thanks to the coach and team for a wonderful season that ended perfectly.

Our first tournament victory over Central on February 20 left us with hearts full of pride and happiness, but also with minds full of anticipation over the game with the Chincoteague "Ponies," our most powerful opponents on the Shore. February 22 found us tense with excitement over the outcome of the deciding contest, the Eastern Shore Championship game. With screams and delighted Indian whoops, the game ended with a 36-30 victory for Cape Charles. We shall never forget these games and the wonderful boys who made the victories possible.

Although there is no award for being the Number One team on the Eastern Shore, and no golden cup engraved with "District A - Group III - Eastern Shore Champions of 1961," the "Indians" know that the mythical title belongs to them.

No other group of boys deserves more praise than these boys for winning the championship. With overwhelming odds and disadvantages, our boys came out victoriously, earning the top honors on the Shore.

We would like to say to these boys "Thanks" for a job well done.

We're sure the coach got all the thanks he wanted on February 22, but we want to thank him again and add our wishes for continuous luck for many seasons to come.

A SENIOR FAREWELL

Memories of the Senior Class of 1961 will gradually fade from your minds, but in our own minds and hearts, we shall always remember the events which have taken place in the last five years.

It seems that only yesterday we were bidding tearful goodbyes to those who graduated before us. Now it is our turn to leave. Just a short time ago, we entered high school full of apprehensions and high hopes. We slowly lost our fears as we became more interested in the school activities and gained, as we felt, a little status.

When we leave, we shall be taking one of the most important steps in our lives, and even the most exciting future any one of us has will not make us forget "good old C.C.H.S." We shall return to watch, not to participate in, school activities and sports. We shall undergo the most lonely feeling when we are no longer an integral part of the school.

After graduation, many of us will enter school again and once more we, as young men and women, shall be filled with those same apprehensions and high hopes that we experienced as eighth grade boys and girls.

We leave you now, not with tearful goodbyes, but with our best wishes for your good luck and a fond AU REVOIR.
